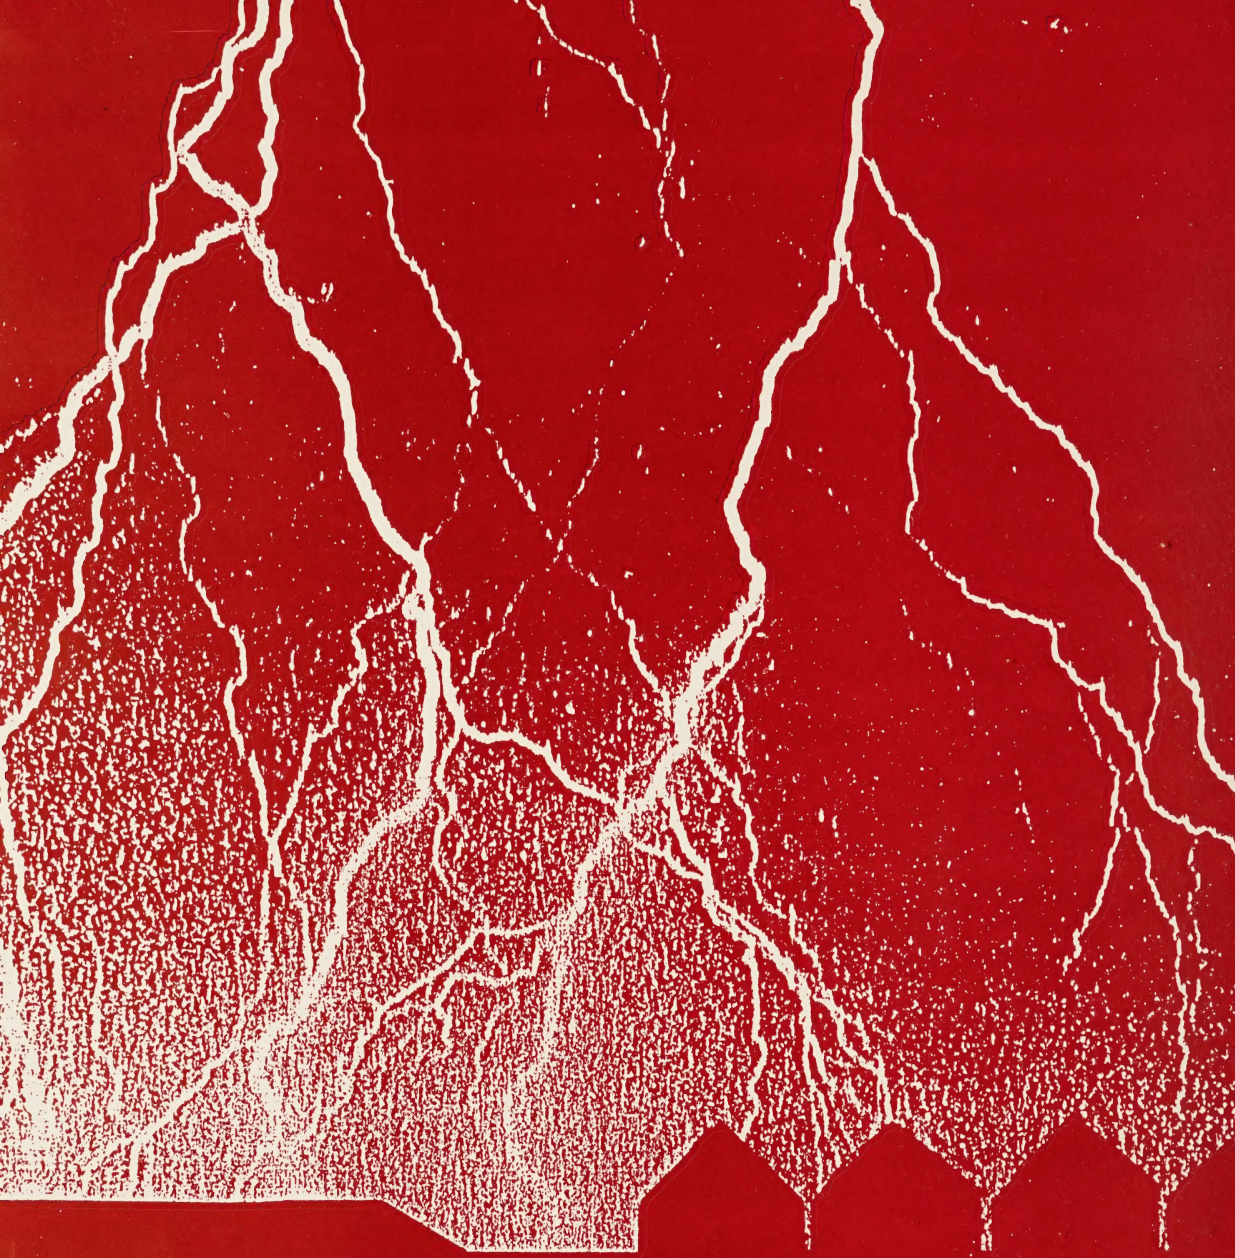
THE STORM

IS RISING . . .

Last year Chancellor students eagerly awaited their chance to lash out and be known. As in a calm before a storm, we experienced the sudden hush as students anxiously prepared for their futures, the quiet buzzing of activity as classes tried to get organized while anticipating the storm, and the surge of energy as our sports teams trained for their chance to strike.

This year the storm is rising at Chancellor. As these pictures indicate, our competitors need to anticipate us with caution, because with storms come lightning! Last year Chancellor lightning bolts struck once. But this, our second year, disproves the old adage that lightning never strikes the same place twice.

Beware there is a storm rising, and lightning will strike twice.

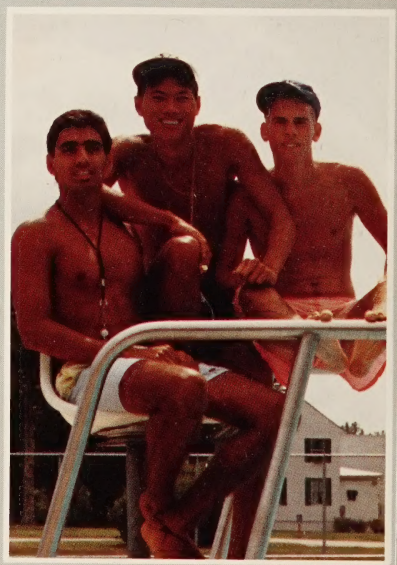


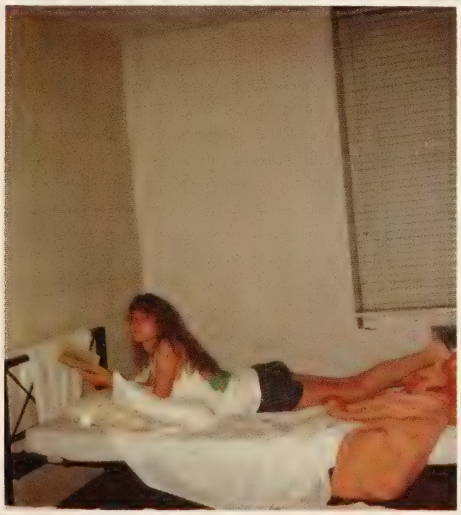
Student Life

SUMMER BEGINS WITH FIELD DAY AND GRADUATION

SUMMERTIME . . .

In the bleak days of winter, we can all recall the endless memories of the summer before. Do you remember the feeling of sand between your toes, the smell of freshly cut grass, the stickiness of a wet t-shirt after a water fight, or just lazy days relaxing with a book? Perhaps you recall the sting of a sunburn after a day at the pool, or the irritating itch of mosquito bites after a weekend of camping with your family somewhere in the mountains. Ah, summertime!





FUN IN THE SUN

When the day seems to be dragging by and the heat is unbearable, what better place is there than the local, air-conditioned mall? A few hours of browsing through all of the stores with a couple of your friends can put a smile on your face and a twinkle in your eye, just like Janel Hradecky and Kim Gill (bottom right).

Several long hours of constant walking, standing, and waiting can really tire out a person. So, a short time-out to sit down and rest, or possibly a new pair of shoes to return the spring to your step, can make shopping for just a few more hours a breeze once again. Just ask Jennifer Fell (right). When you get home to peace and quiet, you can enjoy the treasures of the day's trip and pass several more pleasurable hours.

There are many reasons for visiting a nearby shopping center. One obvious purpose for such an excursion is to search for a new shirt to add to one's wardrobe, as Chris Herrmann (left) demonstrates. Another excuse to drop in on a mall is to catch the latest movie. Many people go to the mall just to hang-out with their friends, like Crystal Griffith and Craig Dauberman (above).

Dive Into The Summer Of '89

In the midst of the summer heat, Trevor Clarke and Hung Le cool off at Loriella, while Kamiar Momemi watches in amazement. Although the faded memories of the pool are long gone, new moments are just waiting to happen. Glen Marcus and Chris Anderson smugly laugh as the summer school bus drives by. Unfortunately, we all realized then that these warm days were too good to last and soon would be lost with a splash.

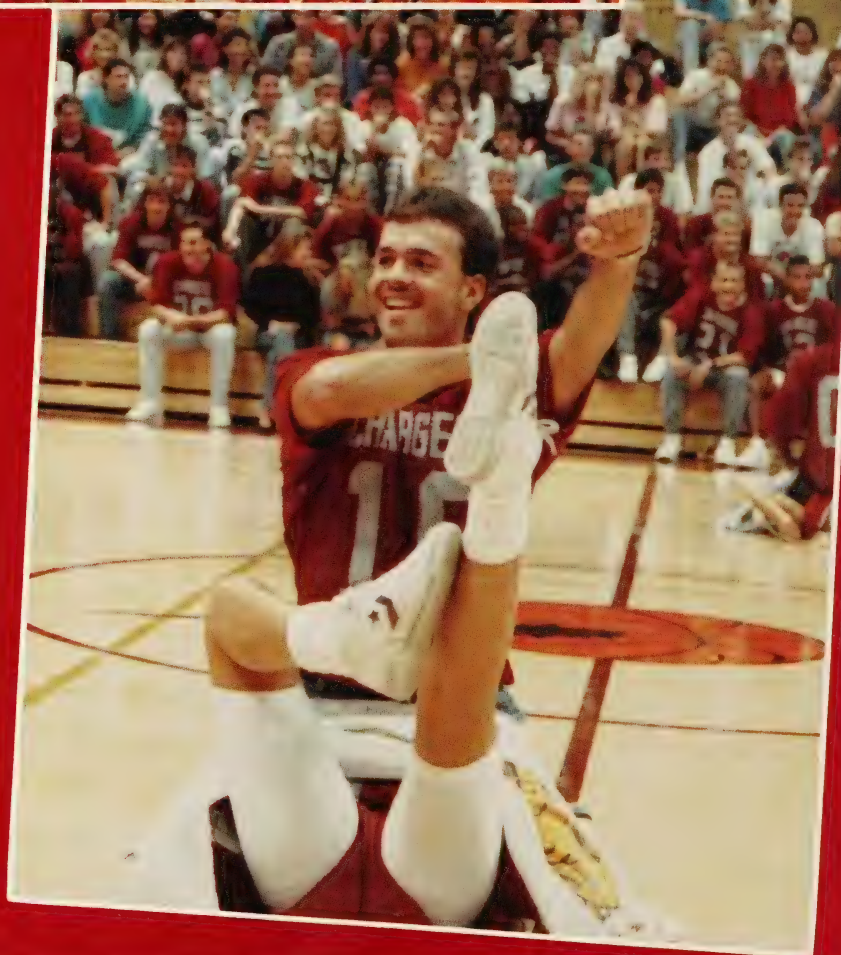
SPLASH

As "busy" as we were with our summer fun, school wasn't that far into the future. In preparation, Michelle Marcus gets that dream haircut while others, such as Patty Gordon, take that final trip to get away. But the majority of us were too occupied with relaxing to even care. Stacey and Courtney Hatcher, along with Tricia Lee, have definitely mastered the art of leisure, but then again, who hasn't?

"WORKING 9 TO 5 . . . "

Do you want to go to all the dances and the ball games? Then you have to pay your dues. Many students accomplish this goal by working during the summer break. Carrie Early instructs young soccer players at a local camp. Nasri Sleem fends off the photographer while performing his duties at Chi Chi's. Renee Shoemaker works diligently loading cars with groceries at Giant. It is astounding how many students carry their own weights financially, even during the school year. How a student manages outside work, academics, and extracurricular activities is a mystery only a seventeen-year-old can answer.

TRYING TO MAKE A LIVING



Chancellor spirit flowed through the stands. There was electricity in the air. It was September 8, the first Friday of school, and the afternoon of the pep rally. During that week, students voted for the best legs on the football team. Donnie Hart, our winner, demonstrated to the crowd how flexible he was — with the help of Michelle Perreault. Bored with the freshmen's attempts to cheer, the senior cheerleaders preferred to catch up on the daily news. Our Seniors dominated the spirit contest, stealing the title away from the Juniors.

SPIRIT

In Chancellor's second year, there was no lack of pride. Polished routines and impressive stunts made our cheerleaders shine as they entertained the enthusiastic crowd. Even the football team rallied together to demonstrate that Charger pride!

SEE YOU

Remember last year when the school wasn't finished, and you saw a construction worker in every hall? This year has been a lot different. No more gym classes in the halls every day. No more assemblies in the gym. And the poles are finally the correct color. School began on September 5, 1989, with the school completely finished, barring a few problems with the air conditioning and bell system.

This year's freshman class is the largest in the school, followed by sophomores, juniors, and seniors respectively. While most underclassmen rode the bus to school, seniors had the privilege of being allowed to drive to school. On the first day of classes, everyone enjoyed meeting their friends, but disliked the thought of getting back to work. Everyone was very confused about their schedules, especially the freshmen. But students managed to have a very exciting first day to begin the school year.

IN SEPTEMBER

WEIRD & WONDERFUL

Sometimes things go on in school that are, frankly, weird; sometimes they are wonderful. For instance, how often will you see Jason Bryant dressed in an antique men's bathing suit, or Crystal Griffith and Kim Gill fraternizing with this strange creature? Only in our high school years are days filled with so many unusual sights, making our teens both weird and wonderful. Twins, on the other hand, are not so much weird as they are wonderful.

HERE WE GO AGAIN!

Construction Strikes Twice

Just when you thought it was safe to go outside, look what happened! They're back! The machines and the men are back tearing up what they once put together. The sidewalks located around the school had to be redone because of extensive cracks. Construction on the football field and field house was completed this year so that we could have our first homecoming game. Perhaps next year will be the first year that we students can go to school without tripping over bulldozers and cement trucks.

WE ARE HAPPY TO WEL

This year new faces filled Chancellor's halls, making quite an impact on the entire school. The freshmen were determined to be noticed, for they created the prize-winning Homecoming float, capturing first place in the "Best Over-All Category". Other ninth graders, such as Heather Anderson, seemed to fit right in, especially with the help of Mr. Lamb. For all your successes, new friendships, and new lives, we welcome you all to Chancellor High.

COME SOME NEW FACES

Asa Anderson and Susanne Tourqvist from Sweden added a new international flair to our population as exchange students. Others, such as Amy Miller, who transfered from California, worked out our complicated hall system. By Homecoming everything seemed to fall into place, and all of us felt that these new people had always been with us, freshmen included.

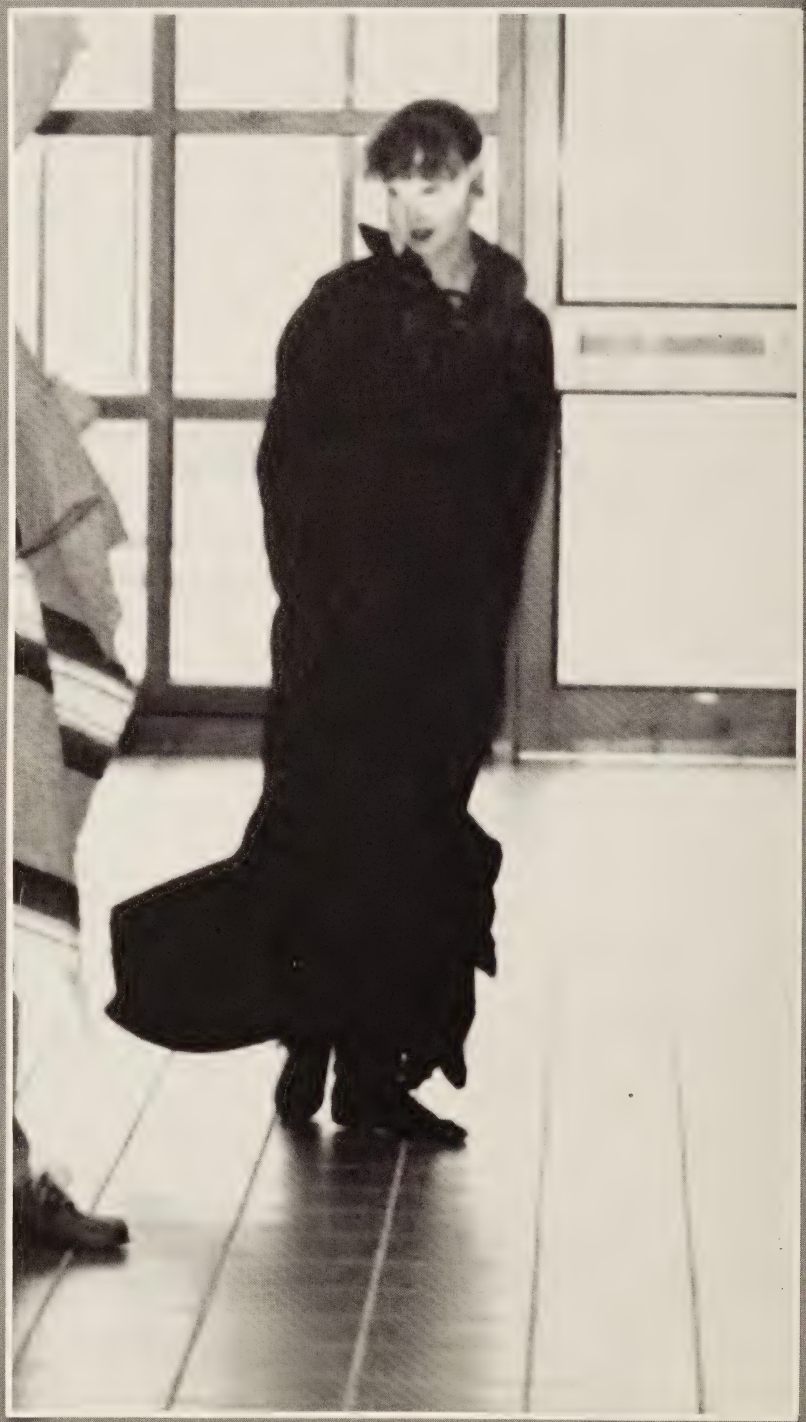
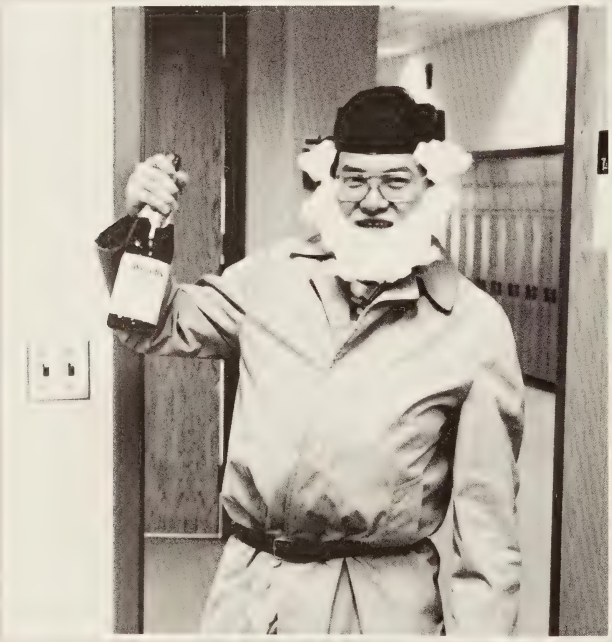
THE SCREAMS OF



HALLOWEEN

BIZARRE HAPPENINGS

Just another ordinary day at Chancellor High School . . . well, not exactly. First, Miss Alford and Mr. Lynch display school spirit by dressing in their most unusual outfits for "Tacky Day." Then to contribute to the excitement, the electricity suddenly went out, leaving everyone in the dark, and some in the hallways. Our hopes of going home early were only a dream, for the lights soon returned; but the day was certainly off to a bizarre start.



Mrs. Mullins' twelfth grade CP English students were required to entertain their classes while studying The Canterbury Tales. Each group not only had to research their pilgrim, but also had to teach and quiz their peers. Dressing as his pilgrim, Phuc Nuygen plays the part of the franklin. All of these students definitely give Chancellor its character, since no day is an "ordinary" day at this school.

HERE COMES THE BRIDE . . .

Alicia Letzo and Shane Stoner share in an exchange of vows on January 10, 1990. The entire ceremony has been organized and prepared by the Life Management classes, along with Mrs. Stello's help. After the mock wedding, many of the guests enjoyed refreshments at the beautifully catered reception.

SCHOLARS AT THEIR BEST

During the second annual academic letter assembly, 126 students were honored. Superintendent Dr. Farley was the guest speaker. All letter recipients had to have maintained a 3.5 average for the 1988-89 school year.

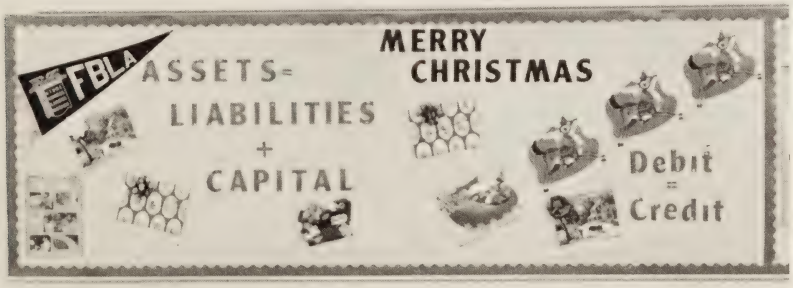
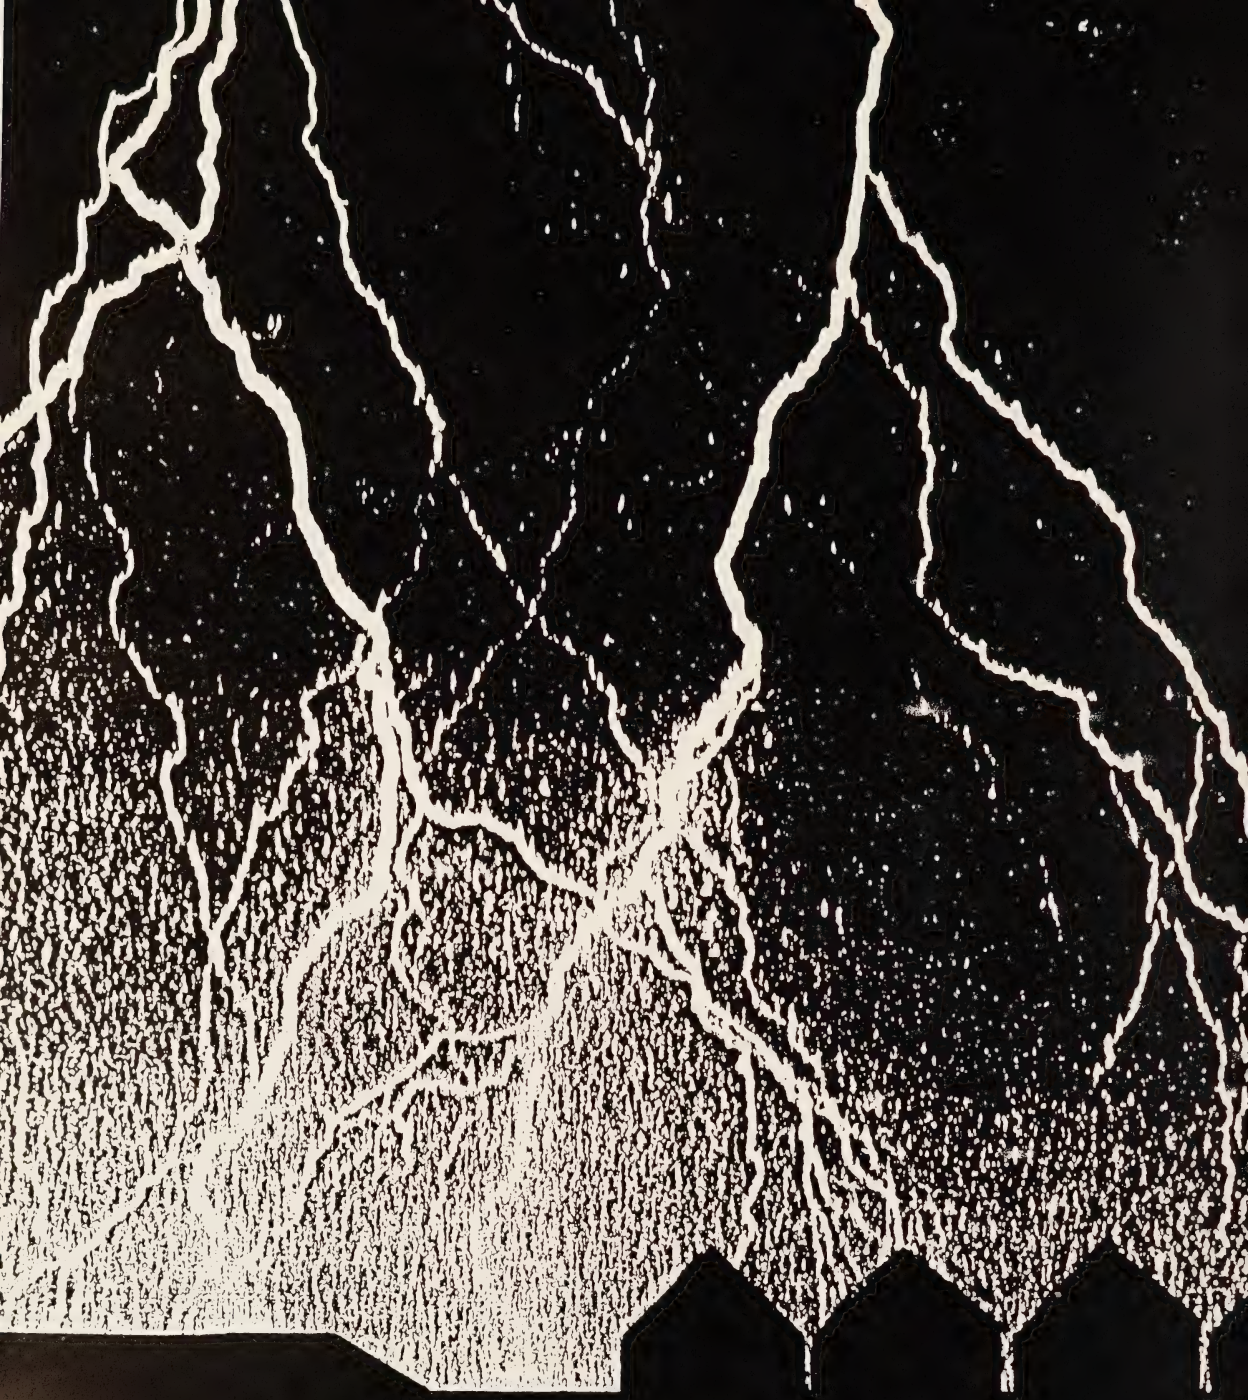
WHITE CHRISTMAS

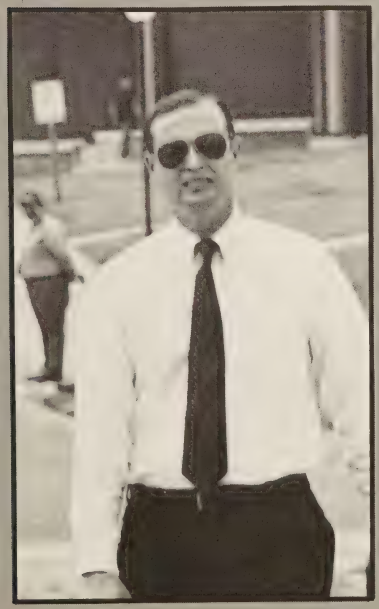
We have been hoping and dreaming of a white Christmas for many years. Finally, for the first time in 20 years, there was snow on the ground for the Holidays. Christmas and December 1989 will be times to remember due to record breaking low temperatures, beautiful white snow, and an unexpected snow break. The SCA and students adopted 4 needy families and gave them a very special Christmas they will never forget. Students donated clothes, food, and toys which they delivered to the families. Several cancellations also came about due to the snow such as the Christmas Dance. However, letters were still written to Santa Claus and a Christmas tree trimming party in the lobby went as planned. The breath-taking scenes of the snowfall proved to enlighten everyone's Christmas as one can tell by Mr. Carroll hugging his tree.





Academics

THE PRINCIPAL

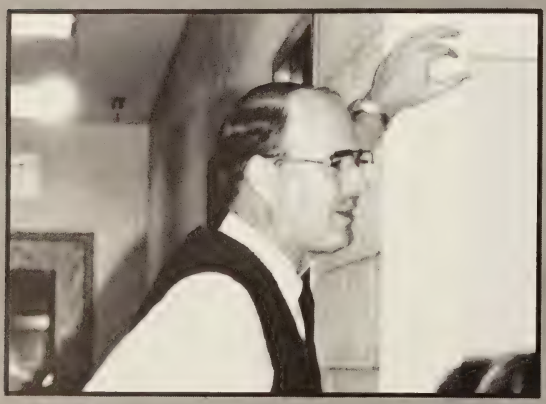


Mr. John Winston's main goal for this school year is to get all construction taken care of. An overall smoother organization of clubs and activities and construction of the home fields are also on the agenda. Mr. Winston agrees that we have finally found our identity as a school along with an established reputation. After receiving his B.A. at Randolph-Macon College, he gained his Masters at the University of Virginia. He taught math for four years at Spotsylvania. Being principal of Chancellor High followed Chancellor Elementary, Spotswood Elementary, and Battlefield Intermediate. With his help, we have made Chancellor what it is today.

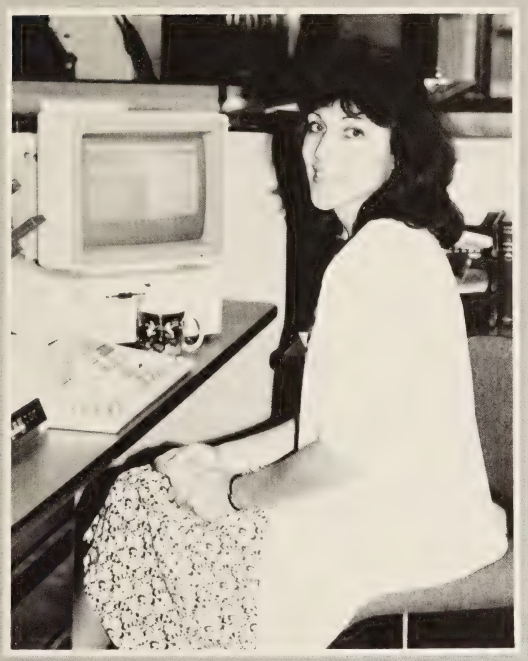
VICE PRINCIPALS

Mr. Daniel really enjoys all the successes the students have achieved that makes it easier on them in the end. He feels that success brings students closer together and breeds even more success. Mr. Daniel has been in education for twenty-two years and is enjoying his second year serving as Vice Principal. He is still excited about Chancellor High and its benefits.

Mr. Marra agrees that 315 more students have caused some problems compared to last year's small enrollment. A larger group of students would always create challenges. He has been in education for thirteen years. He worked two years at East Hardy High School in West Virginia and Director of Education at Davis Center, a correctional institute. Then, he served two and a half years as assistant principal at Spotsylvania High.



OFFICE STAFF



Mrs. Grochowski likes her job because she gets to talk and work with all the students.

Mrs. Calaventinos enjoys the different variety of work she does every day.

Mrs. Cechman knows every student in her duties as attendance secretary.

Mrs. Scott, our bookkeeper, loves having her own office for on-the-job activities.

GUIDANCE STAFF

Right: Mrs. Easley is positioned as the Guidance Department Head. Through her work she has found that the most rewarding aspect of counseling is helping students successfully work through their educational and or personal problems.

Below: Mrs. Stewart, the tenth grade guidance counselor, has found her job to be quite rewarding. Being able to work with students as they mature and make realistic plans for their future has made her work worthwhile.

Above: Mrs. Carroll can not wait to see those smiling faces walking across the stage to get their diploma on Graduation Night. Being the senior class guidance counselor takes great patience, but also a bit of enthusiasm. Mr. Carroll advises seniors about scholarships, awards, and college information.

Left: Mrs. Bane enjoys getting to meet more of the students that she did not have the opportunity to do last year. Being the guidance secretary, she directs students to the counselor and knows how important guidance counselors are to the students.

Who's Who

Seniors

TRAVEL IN PACKS

Chancellor's first full graduating class consists of 250 students. This year's senior class not only set new standards, but also developed a rare closeness. Whether indoors or outdoors, whether happy or sad, seniors stick together. As you can see throughout this page, they always travel in packs.

Senior Officers

This year's senior class officers are: President, David Conrad; Vice President, Shannon Malocha; Secretary, Whitney Malocha; Treasurer, Mike Byram; and Reporter/Historian, Jay Freeman.

These officers, along with the Senior Class Board, chose announcements and thought of fundraising ideas.

Right: Jay Freeman, Mike Byram, Whitney Malocha, Shannon Malocha, and Dave Conrad.

Alyssa Althoff "Liss" Likes UNC, the CITY, Pooh. Only on love's terrible other side/is found the place where lion and lamb aide.

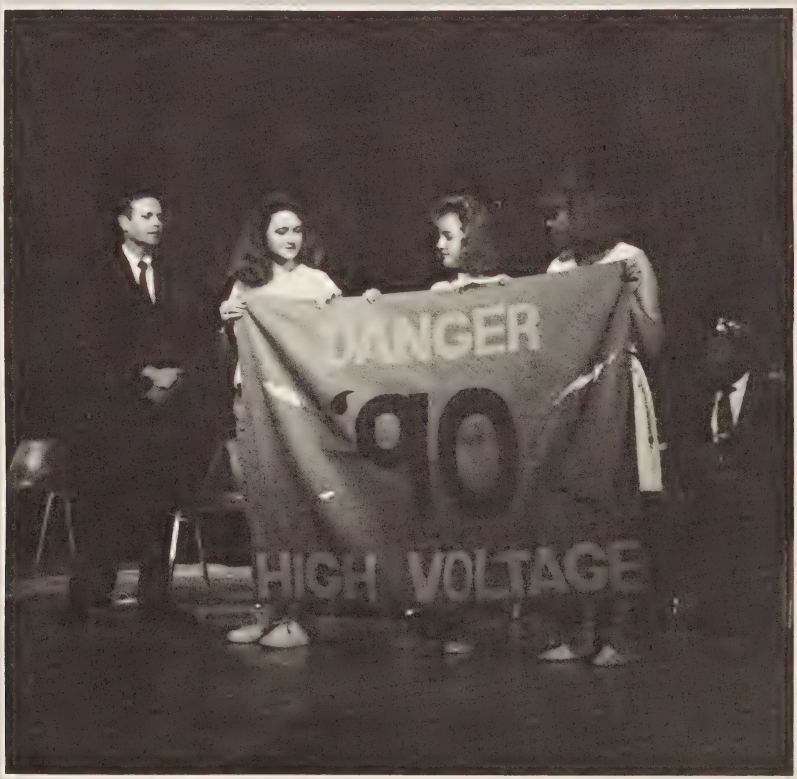
The Senior Banner

The class of 1990's senior banner warns: Danger High Voltage. This message describes the class of 1990 perfectly, for its students are vibrant and full of energy. Charged up with the electricity needed to face their futures, our seniors act unafraid of what 1991 will bring. Keep that positive charge!



Right: Jennifer Dodson, Lisa Thorburn, and Michelle Montgomery present the banner to Mr. Winston.

Seniors Carrie McArtor and Amy Baker are just two of this year's graduating class who are interested in both style and results. Not only do they want to succeed, but they want to do it with class.

Jonathan B. Klock "Jay" Likes Steph, Latin, football, baseball. Why you wanna bust? No Jaws, your other right.

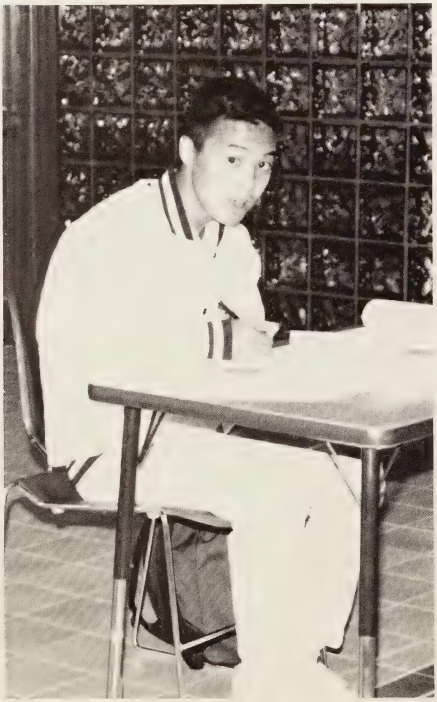
JUNIORS LEAVE THEIR IMPRESSIONS IN 1990.

It wasn't difficult to predict which members of the Junior class would leave definite impressions on the world. Art Canizares is one of those students.



Art excels in all his classes and is an accomplished athlete, participating on the cross country, tennis, soccer and basket ball teams. What a handprint!

SELECTIVE SOPHOMORES

The future Class of 1992 is proud to be the first class at Chancellor to be going through all four years of high school in this building. They show their spirit and pride in everything they do, from studying Julius Caesar in English class to creating an imaginative and unique class banner. They are led by the following class officers: Jill Gordy, Vice President; Jeremiah Ivan, President; Jeff Cranston, Reporter – historian; Katie Harrison, Secretary; and Chris Conley, Treasurer (absent).

REBECCA CASE PROVES HERSELF

Sophomore Rebecca Case is this year's tenth grade yearbook honors winner. She is an honor roll student, a member of the marching band, the Math Club, the Key Club, and is actively involved in our F.F.A. Locally, she is our F.F.A. Reporter; on the district level, she is a Federation Sentinel, attending one state convention and two national conventions. Congratulations, Rebecca!

SOPHOMORES LINE UP FOR A GOOD YEAR

Christine Bennett is only one of this year's sophomores who is happy to be at C.H.S., and works hard to prove it. Like many other sophomores, she has forfeited a study hall to help out in the main office as an aide. Sometimes this duty causes Christine to rush through her lunch, as she's done here. Such dedication to the school is a symbol of the sophomore spirit.

THE LINE FORMS TO THE RIGHT!

Stephanie Kirby awaits her turn at one of our water fountains, trying to decide whether to take off her jacket or leave it on for the next class. Who knows whether the next classroom will be 85° hot or 60° cold? It's better to be prepared for either contingency. Right, Stephanie?

CLASS OF '92 . . . FIRST TO GO THROUGH

If you began at Chancellor as a Freshman last year, and continue here, graduating in the year 1992, then you will, indeed, be among the "first to go through." This is something no one else can ever say here, and the Class of '92's banner proudly portrays that.

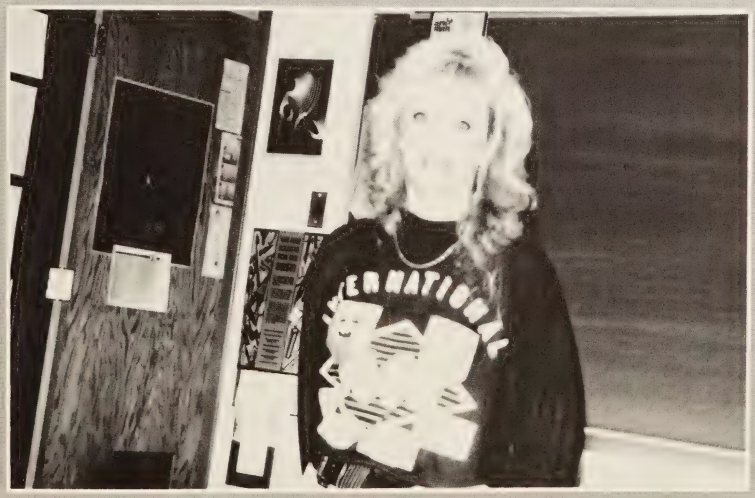
FINE ARTS OFFERS EYE APPEAL



Our Fine Arts Department offers interesting and stimulating classes, such as Theater Arts, Music, Band, Chorus, and Art. Valerie Chute enjoys Mrs. Scott's Art III class which allows her to express her creative talents in many areas of the media.

IT TAKES TWO

Our Sophomore class this year is the largest in the county with over 300 tenth graders attending. The workload was so large that it takes two counselors to handle all the scheduling. Mrs. Easley and Mrs. Stewart share the duties to help our Sophomores excel and all become next year's Juniors.

SOPHOMORE SMILES

Even in the face of adversity, this year's Sophomores keep on smiling. Jeff Cranston smiles even with a cross country injury; Suzan Moran smiles as she finishes a late homework assignment; and Kristen Boyer smiles as she faces some new computer software. Keep on smiling, sophomores!

Freshmen

New Freedoms

This year some of our "little" brothers and sisters made the grave transition from intermediate school to high school. They went from being the "head honchos" to peons in a world of upper classmen.

Freshmen got a taste of new freedoms. They could choose their own courses, they could sit where they wanted at lunch (as long as it wasn't in the senior section), there were new club opportunities, and finally they were treated as mature young adults.

Freshmen Leaders

This year's Freshman Class Officers were elected November 1. The results were as follows: President, Curtis White; Vice President, Jim Klock; Secretary, Jody Tanner; Reporter/Historian, Misty Sheldon. These students not only prove that they possess outstanding leadership qualities, but also show a willingness to take on a challenge in their decision to run for class office.

A GUIDE TO THE FUTURE

The freshman guidance counselor for this year is Mrs. Easley. She has a Bachelor's Degree in English from Howard University and a Master of Education Degree in Guidance and Counseling from the University of Virginia. Mrs. Easley has been involved with Spotsylvania County education for twenty-five years. She taught English for six years and has been in guidance for nineteen years.

In the future Mrs. Easley hopes to see the addition of more counselors in order to reduce the present case load.

The Fearless Freshman Leader

Mrs. Hale, the Freshman class sponsor, has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Mary Washington College. The Freshman class plans to construct a banner and collect dues. The class officers were elected November 1. Last year campaign speeches for Freshmen were videotaped. This year the class of 1993 had the luxury of hearing the speeches in the auditorium.

FOOD, FRESHMEN, FUN

Freshmen experienced new freedom at lunch as they were finally weened from intermediate school eating rituals. They were allowed to sit where and with whomever they chose, making lunch a more enjoyable time.

FRESHMEN HAVE PERSONALITY

Freshmen not only added four hundred new faces to our school, but also four hundred new and different personalities. They brought with them vitality, perserverance, and a quest for learning.

LEADERS

The SCA is the driving force behind most of the school's special activities. The SCA sponsors almost all of the dances, pep rallies, and assemblies we attend. The SCA is also responsible for the various food drives that are held throughout the year. The members of the SCA Executive Board read the announcements that are heard every morning. Many of the members of the board are also active participants in other clubs and bring their leadership abilities to these clubs.

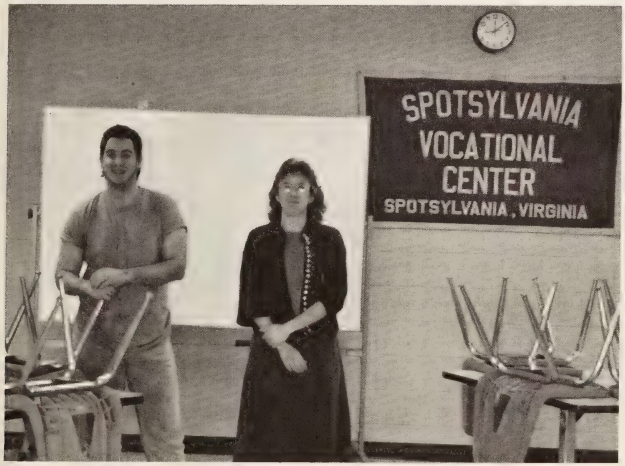
VOCATIONAL



Everyday the vocational bus makes morning and afternoon runs to the Vocational Center at Courtland and the Cosmetology Lab at Spotsy High. That is where our students learn from some real "hands-on" experience. In Cosmetology III, Susan Gallahan, Melanie George, Linda Six, and Susie Wilkerson learn to set hair on models. Howard Knicely and Patty Gordon are just two of our Culinary Arts students, and in Drafting II, Paul DeBruhl, Joe Clark, Peter Holtzman, Todd Reichert, and others are sketching.

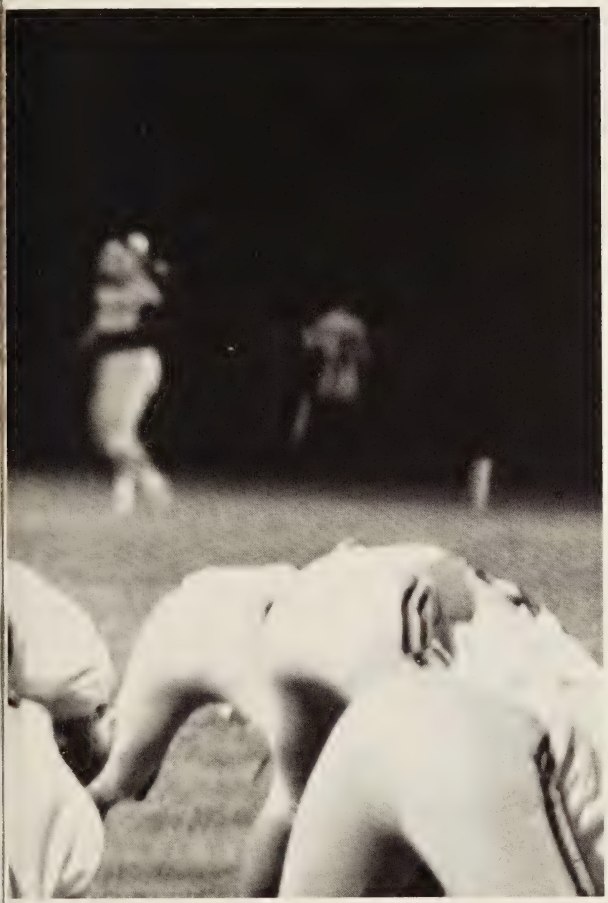
CHARGER MOTTO: "MAKE

If there were one sentence this year to epitomize our Charger football team, it would be their 1989 motto, "Make It Happen!" This is exactly what our team did this year. The Varsity team advanced to the state semifinals, while the J.V. team had a record four wins and four losses.

IT HAPPEN!"



Mr. Sutter, the J.V. coach, stated, "The team was extremely young, mostly freshmen were starting. In spite of this, these young men played with a great deal of pride and character." He also went on to say, "The future of football at Chancellor High School looks very bright."

At center, Coach Miller is getting a few points straight with Scott Williams; and at far left, Adam Melerski gets his orders right.

Chancellor met Southampton on November 25, on their new home field for the state semi-finals. Tyrone Scroggins, Shawn Szakelyhidi, Mark Long, Charles Beasley, and Kevin Cannon were the five varsity team members chosen for All District. Coach Miller was chosen as Coach of the Year by the Free Lance Star. The Chargers completed their second year with a 8 and 5 record and a berth in the State Playoffs.

Amy Wallace flies down the field with confidence.

In only its second year of existence, Chancellor field hockey has definitely created a name for itself. Both the varsity and jayvee teams went undefeated in the district, capturing championship titles. Throughout the season the varsity defense allowed 3 goals, while their offense scored 41 against AA schools. Meanwhile, the young, but strong, jayvee ended with an outstanding record. Special awards were presented to Kellie Loughan and Shannon and Whitney Malocha, all of whom were chosen for both the All-District and All-Area teams. Niki Caputo was selected for Second team All-Area, and received Honorable Mention in the District. Another standout, Cindy Rivera, was named to the Second team All-District. Considering the varsity had twelve graduating seniors, next year's team faces the challenge of holding onto the title.

Varsity fall cheerleaders demonstrate excellence and style. This summer they attended the University of Richmond camp where they were nominated for Award of Excellence. Jill Chapman and Janel Hradecky were All-American Cheerleader nominees. They received first place in the Leggett Cheerleading Competition and second runner up in the Capital City Cheerleading Championships. To the left, Wendy Gustafson, Stephanie Bartlett, and Tracy Jones relax before a game.

YOU SAY CHARGERS!

Through endless hours of practice, our JV fall cheerleaders prepare their squad to perform flawlessly. They were Award of Excellence Nominees at the University of Richmond Cheerleading Camp. With spirit and enthusiasm, this squad, along with the Varsity, brought home spirit sticks. Below, Rebecca Gordon and Wendy Lett impress the crowd by adding personality to their halftime cheer. WE SAY BURGUNDY!

Varsity winter cheerleaders, with true dedication, support the boys' varsity basketball team throughout the hectic season. This past summer, they joined the football cheerleaders at the University of Richmond Cheerleading camp. Together, both squads not only were nominated for the Award of Excellence but also brought home a spirit stick. Above, captain Karen Brueck displays the spirit of the winter cheerleaders. Below, varsity performs during halftime at a home basketball game.

YOU SAY GRAY!

Despite the fact that they began inexperienced, the jayvee winter cheerleaders excel at each and every basketball game. They developed impressive jumps and reached their full potential. After earning a spirit stick at camp, the squad was prepared to represent Chancellor High School. They continuously practice to attain near perfection and always support both the basketball team and varsity cheerleaders. Below left, sponsor Mrs. O'Connel advises the jayvee cheerleaders. Andy Washburn, Hung Le, Lee Atkins, Dan Henegar, David Conrad, Neil Collins, and Kamiar Momeni prepare for the race

Both the boys and girls Cross Country teams enjoyed very successful seasons. The girls went through the season with only one district loss. In the process, the girls beat the team from Luoisa, who had not lost a district meet in three years. They won two trophies at invitational meets. At the district meet, Susanne Tournqvist, Michelle Montgomery, Etta Agan, Carrie Early, and Laura Douglas, received all-district honors, and the team finished in first place. At the regional meet, the team finished in second place, and Susanne and Michelle also earned all-regional status. The girls ended their season with a fifth place finish at the state meet.

The boys team also had an impressive year, going through the entire season without a district loss. The boys team won two trophies at invitationals, also. Including invitational meets, the boys defeated over seventy other teams and lost to only one AA school. All seven runners, Neil Collins, Andy Washburn, David Conrad, Chris Harris, Lee Atkins, Hung Le, and Dan Henegar, placed in the top fifteen at the district meet, and therefore received all-district honors. Overall, the team finished in first place. The boys continued their success at the regional distinctions. The boys completed the season by coming in second place at the state meet, the highest finish of any Cross Country team in the county.

Mrs. Myers came to Chancellor this year to face quite a challenge. She soon discovered that our 9 member gymnastics team is comprised of 7 freshman, all of whom possessed talent but no high school experience. Led by teammate Linda McLain, they all proved themselves, beating many seniors in the district.

On rainy afternoons you will often see dedicated runners jogging through our carpeted halls. These runners, including many who are training for spring sports, participated in Chancellor's first Indoor Track Team. To prevent these athletes from reaching their peaks too early, they limited their practices to three days a week. Their season was relatively short due to the fact that we lack our own indoor track. Above, an indoor track appears quite similar to an outdoor track, except that it is half the size. To the left, Coach DeMarco assists Carrie Early with her workout.

Congratulations on Another Successful School Year 1989-1990

Success is not measured by the number of school days completed, rather it is determined by positive attitudes,
a constant endeavor to excell, and a delicate balance between a strong sense of unity and the importance of maintaining individuality.

At Leggett of Spotsylvania Mall, we appreciate these qualitities of success. . .
and that is why in our store you will always feel at home, you will always be able to find the perfect pair of jeans or the most beautiful dress for the prom, and you will always find cheerful associates to help you in your selections!

David Berron

Congratulations "Little Brother" David

From Sean

Ann Yoz

Bringing up a daughter can be a challenge and a joy — A challenge when you think of all the things you want for her, like security and independence, maturity, self-confidence, and love ... and joy when she turns out like you!

Congratulations

Mom & Dad

Donnie Hart

"The greatest possible contribution which any one of us can make to the world is just to be ourselves at our best."

We thank you for all the best you have given to us. Our love and support remains with you as you challenge yourself to the high standards you have set out to achieve.

We love you,

Mom, Dad, Jason, and Sara

YEARBOOK COLOPHON

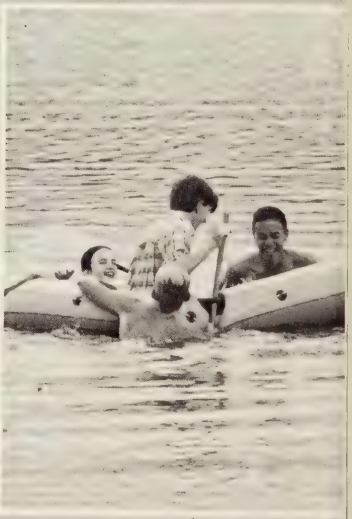
Our 1989-90 Challenges staff was comprised of the same ten students who did the first yearbook, so experience was the foundation for this book. Our publisher was Jostens Printing and Publishing, Clarksville, Tennessee, our sales representative was Carol Adams, and our service representative was Chrys Brummal.

Our cover is in silver #500, with a combination of black #326. The lettering is a combination of custom artwork and helvetica. Our endsheets are school designed, printed with our table of contents on the front pages and a song entitled "These are the Times" on the back pages. The book itself is in a trim size of 8 1/2 x 11, consisting of 192 pages with a 16 page spring supplement. The first signature of the book combines full color and spot color, making use of the school colors of maroon and gray. Our bindings are smythe sewn and the paper is 80#.

We primarily used typeface number 37 for copy and 37i for headlines. In the first signature we used a custom designed dropped initial that followed the lightning motif. These dropped initials were created by Renee Shoemaker.

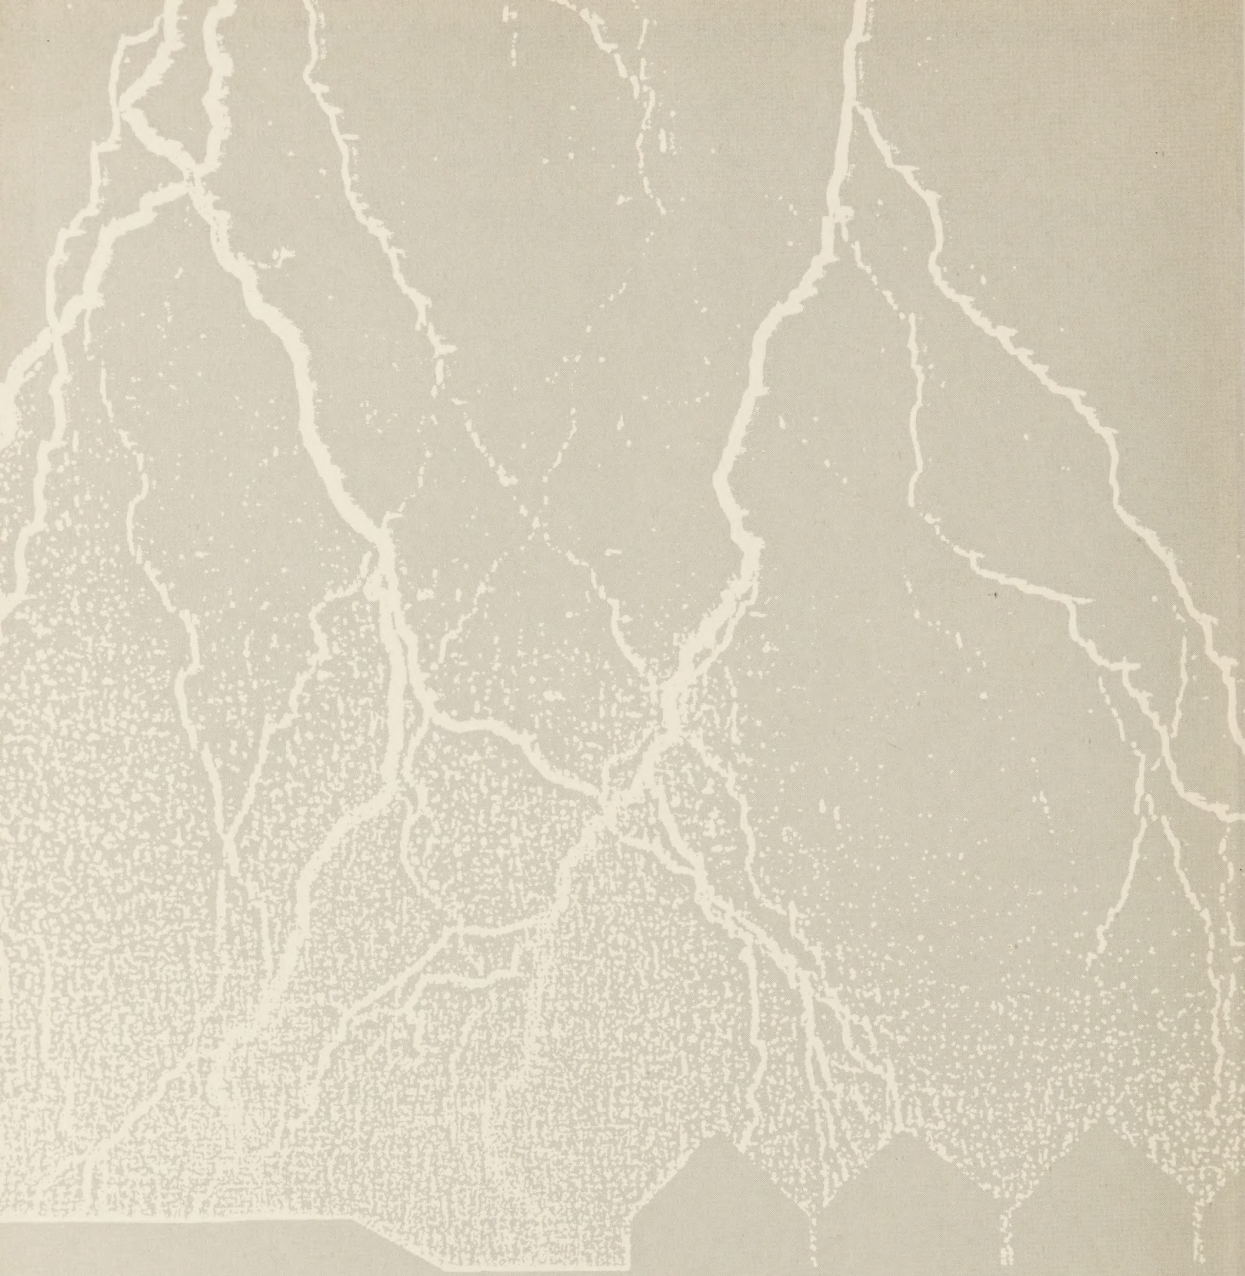
We developed the theme of "Lightning Strikes Twice" from the old saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. Since this was our second year in existence, lightning did strike twice in Charger territory. The silhouette of our school under two bolts of lightning reinforced the theme on each division page and screened down to 30% black on our endsheets.

Yearbook was not just work; we had some times to play, like at Lake Monticello on a picnic with our Jostens rep, or at UVa during a VHSL workshop, and finally at a summer yearbook camp at Lynchburg College.



Last year when we typed our first copy, creating a yearbook seemed an impossible task. But thanks to the work of all my staff, expecially my graduating seniors, we've made it through two years now, creating two special yearbooks. I want to say a heartfelt good-bye to my seniors, John, Cheryl, Renee, Bill, Shannon, Whitney, for you all will be greatly missed next year, not only by me, but by the rest of the staff. Take care, th for all the hard work, and have wonderful, happy lives.

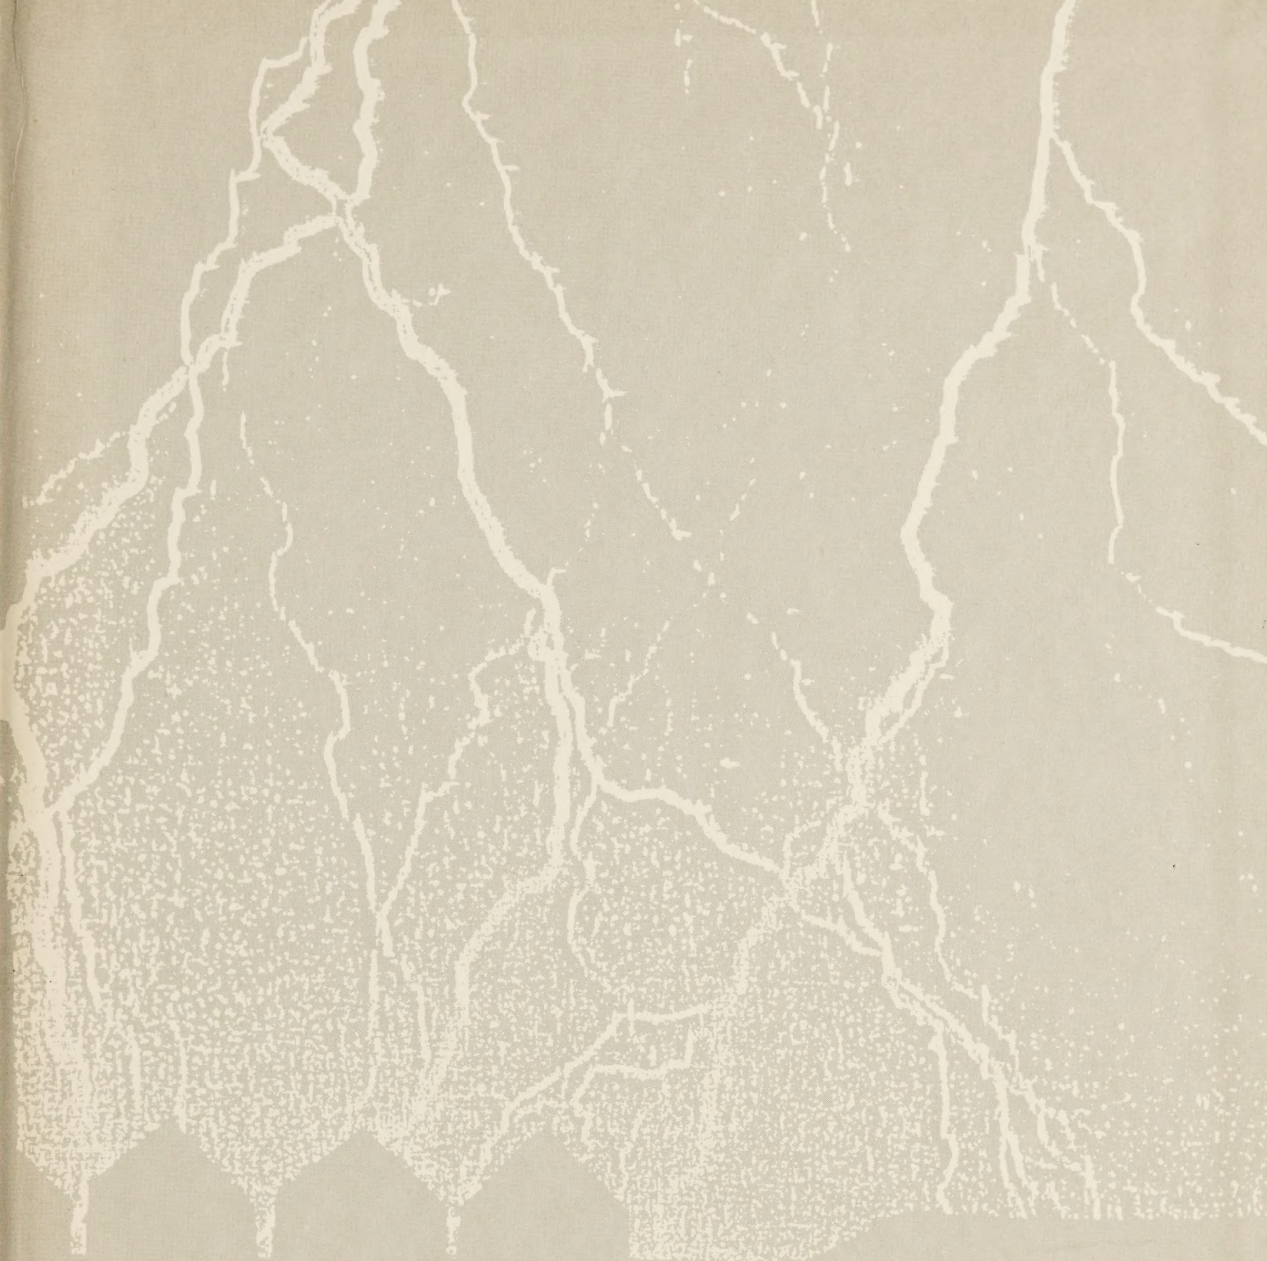
Mrs. Gordon



These Are the Times to Remember

I know we'll be friends for life,
Sharing our dreams together.
As we walk down the road,
We'll never think twice.

These memories are made forever.
Though we're off to different worlds,
Somehow we're together.
No, we're never far apart,
Because deep within our hearts,
These are the times to remember.
The memories will last forevermore.
These are the times to remember.
It's a part of life you can recall.
These are the times.



With happy tears we cried.
We reached for the stars together.
We lived by a code,
To stand side by side,
And it just keeps on getting better.
When we're off to different worlds,
Somehow we're together.
No, we're never far apart,
Because deep within our hearts,
These are the times to remember.
The memories will last forevermore.
These are the times to remember,
Because it's in your heart forevermore.

Yes, dreams do come true,
But it's up to me and you.
When we look back on all these times,
Their happiness will shine through.
These are the times to remember.
The memories will last forevermore.
These are the times to remember.
These are the times . . .
